GRAND JARDIN

ROSÉ

COTEAUX D'AIX EN PROVENCE

PRODUCT OF FRANCE

APPELLATION

- Sourced from the Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence appellation located in the western section of Provence's limestone lands in the south-eastern corner of France.
- Provence's abundant sunshine helps to ripen the grapes, and the wind from the north helps prevent rot.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

- Winemkaer Léa Rouyet is a graduate of Montpellier University and has worked both in France and New Zealand before realizing that Provençal Rosé was her true passion.
- Immensely approachable, this classic Provence Rosé was handcrafted in the picturesque hills surrounding the historic city of Aix-en-Provence.

WINEMAKING

Cold pressed and fermented at low temperatures, this Rosé is a blend of Grenache (50%), Syrah (30%) and Cabernet Sauvignon (20%) grapes.

TASTING NOTES

Light pink in color with a hint of pale salmon and a nose of fruit forward aromas of strawberry, melon and citrus. Soft and crisp on the mouth, with good length showing evident natural carbonation and a hint of sweetness.

VARIETALS

50% Grenache, 30% Syrah, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon
