

QUINTA SARDONIA

2 0 1 4

VINO de la TIERRA de CATILLA y LEÓN

Sardonía is a local plant commonly found along the banks of the Duero River Valley. Traditionally known for its inspiring properties of the mind and soul, this plant serves as an inspiration for the environmentally respectful wines made by the Fonseca family at their Quinta Sardonía estate.

92

POINTS

“This red is ripe and rich. Bold flavors of plum and currant mingle with licorice, graphite, loamy earth and smoky notes. Muscular tannins and balsamic acidity give this a sturdy structure. Dense and heady, balanced and long.” — Thomas Matthews

Wine Spectator
November 15, 2019